THE ULTIMATE TRIAL NOTEBOOK

A Summary of Law and Techniques to Help You Prepare for Success at Trial

The notebook will aid your trial preparation for years to come. Each section is a tight summary of rules and information you can quickly read as you prepare for trial, so it is fresh in your mind. There is a section for each portion of trial, including: pretrial; voir dire; opening statement; direct examination; cross-examination; and closing argument. It also has Language of the Law (gives specific examples of language used for common tasks like laying the foundation for a document and putting a photo into evidence) and Trial Almanac (a quick reference to many facts that can arise). The materials alone are worth the price of admission.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Todd Winegar is a dynamic speaker and practicing attorney. He is one of ICLE's highest rated speakers. He has taught CLE programs throughout the country. With over 30 years of experience, his practice has involved him in some of the largest cases in his state. Mr. Winegar's practice emphasizes civil trial litigation, including a Minuteman missile accident case, professional malpractice, and product liability actions involving para- and quadriplegia. He draws examples from these experiences to present a thought-provoking yet practical seminar.
